

FAQ Number: 1553

Date Published: August 08, 2008

Last Updated: August 08, 2008

Question: Does DHS have the authority to enforce the use of Inherently Safer Technology (IST) at a facility?

Answer:

Section 550 explicitly prohibits DHS from disapproving a Site Security Plan “based on the presence or absence of a particular security measure,” including inherently safer technologies. Even so, covered facilities are certainly free to consider IST options, and their use may reduce risk and regulatory burdens.